MINORITY CLAIM THEY HAD NO
CHANCE TO CONSIDER TARIFF BILL

Measure is Reported to the Senate

May Tack on an Amendment to Impose
Tax on the Gross Receipts of All Corporations.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 12.—A writ of habeas corpus secured in the case of S. S. Carvalho, Bradford Morrill and Edward H. Clark, officers of the Star company, publishers of the New York American and Evening Journal, in the action brought against them for criminal libel on the complaint of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was upheld in the supreme court today.

Rockefeller had complained of the publication of the New York American of an article accusing him of instituting a system of peonage among the employees of a breakfast food company in Illinois. In his opinion Justice Gerard characterizes the article as a gross and vicious libel, the writers and publishers of which should be brought to trial, but finds that as no evidence to show that the defendants had anything whatever to do with its writing or publication.

Justice of Supreme Court Decides no
Evidence to Show Defendant's
Connection in Case.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The amended tariff bills is now on the senate calendar and the consideration of the measure is set for Thursday. It was laid before the finance committee with the Democrat members present this morning, and after a thirty minutes parley by a strictly party vote it was decided to lay the bill before the senate.

Senator Daniel declared the minority on the finance committee had no opportunity to consider the Payne bill, and had no opportunity to vote for anything in connection with it except on the motion to report it to the senate. A notice of amendment for the purpose of imposing a tax of one-quarter of one per cent on the gross receipts of corporations was given by Senator Daniel.

That the present session of the house called to enact the tariff legislation is not restricted to that subject was the decision of Speaker Cannon today.
